Dr. H. C. Black was the successful competitor, before the county commissioners this morning, as physician for the poor house and county jail, and McKennan, Bros. & Co. to furnish the medicine.

A special to Texas papers from New York headed "Texans in Gotham," contains the following: Hugh D. Brown, of Waco, was introduced in the Manhattan Athletic club by Member J. M. Walsh.

The county commissioners this morning resolved themselves into a cremation society and burned the immense accumulation of scalps—the result of the scalp-law of the last legislature. The atmosphere in and around the county court room was perfumed with the odor of burning scalps.

The communication which appeared in yesterday's NEWS from Major Slosson, and which purported to give some very valuable Texas history, has called forth a letter from Dr. Burleson, which should be read by all who read the letter from Major Slosson. Dr. Burleson's letter will be found in the local columns of THE NEWS today.

Mr. E. Kirby Smith, the handsome jailor, was married yesterday evening to Miss Cora Foster, a charming belle of Patrick county. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents and the happy pair started this morning for Meridian and other points on their bridal tour. They will return in a few days to Waco, where they will reside permanently. THE NEWS wishes them a long happy, and prosperous life in their new relation.

A NEWS reporter visited the City Hospital this morning, and was much impressed with the care and attention which given to unfortunates cared for in that long needed institution. Mr. Wall the man who was so severely burned about two weeks ago is improving as rapidly as possible under the circumstances. While the reporter was present arrangements were being made for the care of a man who was in the last stages of pneumonia. He had been lying in a tent in a camp near the Hospital with little or no attention.

Deed of Trust.

A deed of trust was filed by R. G. Tucker, of McGregor, with the county clerk late yesterday afternoon naming J. C. Walton as trustee. The terms of the instrument makes it the duty of the trustee to take charge of the business, sell the stock and apply the proceeds to the payment of the following debts:

The above four creditors to be paid in full, and the following to share pro rata: M. A. Cooper, $63; Tripis & Kermendo, $101; Juberbie & Behan, of New Orleans, $118; Fort Worth Candy and Cracker company, $30 50; Arkansas City Milling company, $183; Hughes Brothers, Dallas, $21.

NAVIGATING THE BRAZOS.

The New Boat Erie Number 5 Arrives in the City.

Last Monday about noon the Brazos Navigation company's boat, Erie Number 5, arrived in the city from Granbury, Hood County, and tied up at the company's temporary wharfs, at the foot of Jefferson street near the city hospital. The boat has been out from Granbury about twenty-four days and had quite an eventful trip. They encountered large masses of ice and got caught in an ice pack and delayed two days.

The captains of the craft, there being none lower in rank on board, are J. W. Ulmer, William Clark, Dan Carrico, Joe Pettis, Jack Finton, A. Dubble and S. S. Crow.

The commissary department will be replenished here and the boat will start on its journey to the great deep water port of Velasco.

The Erie Number 5 is a graceful craft and is about eighteen feet in length over all and is about ten feet in width at both bow and stern. Her tonnage is not exactly known, but with a full load on she only draws about four inches of water.

The Brazos Navigation company was organized to compete with the Trinity Navigation company and it hopes to demonstrate by this trip its ability to carry all the freight from North Texas to deep water.
